About us:

Volunteering WA's mission is 'to lead, advance and celebrate volunteering in WA', and our vision is 'for every Western Australian to enjoy (valued) volunteering experiences that enrich our state'. As the peak organisation for volunteering in WA, we are the leading voice for volunteers and volunteer-involving organisations, working to strengthen the sector and promote the benefits of volunteering. Volunteering WA supports volunteering across all areas, providing resources for community organisations across the state, whether they work in sport and recreation, the environment, emergency services, aged care, health and disability services, and many other areas.

The position:

The Regional Community Engagement Coordinator ("RCEC") is a key member of the Corporate Team, responsible for engaging and supporting regional community organisations with their volunteering challenges.

This role is responsible for engaging with volunteer involving organisations to ensure widespread awareness and implementation of the resources and services offered by Volunteering WA, including accessing support from regional corporate volunteers. The Regional Community Engagement Coordinator will also work closely with corporate staff to promote and increase participation in volunteering activities in Port Hedland, Newman and other regional areas.

The RCEC needs to work independently, effectively and with confidence. This position requires medium level physical effort including lifting, and flexible work hours with some early starts and/or late finishes. Some intrastate travel will be required.

This position is based from either Port Hedland or Newman and requires high level initiative, and logistical, organisational, project management, interpersonal, communication and work, health and safety skills and practices as well as the ability to build, develop and sustain productive relationships.

Main duties and responsibilities:

- Facilitate networking opportunities for community organisations, including social events and staff development and training opportunities.
- Organise a regional awards ceremony or corporate volunteering events during National Volunteer Week in May, including all logistical requirements.

Event Coordination

- Coordinate and drive corporate volunteering event activities including all logistical requirements and attend and follow-up corporate volunteering days in Port Hedland and Newman.
- Ensure high levels of participation and satisfaction in corporate volunteering activities
- Deliver highly quality volunteering events to meet contractual obligations, objectives and KPIs.

Administration and Reporting

- Report to the Manager Corporate Engagement and work closely with the Corporate Team to meet contractual obligations for our corporate partners.
- Regular event reporting and maintenance of accurate records of contacts and volunteering activities.
- Contribute to day-to-day Volunteering WA operations and respond to requests for support as required.

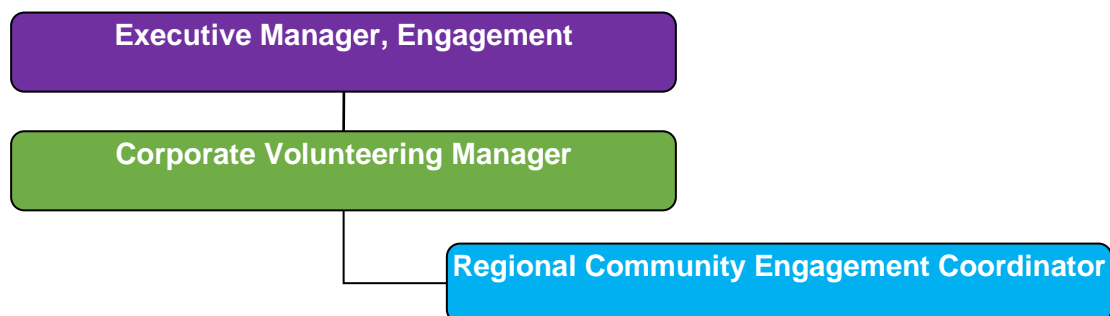

Stakeholder Engagement

- Identify, engage and build productive, sustainable relationships with member not for profit organisations interested in engaging corporate volunteers, including giving presentations when required.
- Contribute creatively and professionally to the strategic direction of the Volunteering WA Team.

Communication

- Deliver corporate volunteering presentations and network, as required.
